A bit of light-hearted humor...

Ella recently received this email from Dan Kiurski, and it was the high point of 2020 for her. She asked me to share it with you:

Hello Miss Ella,

I hope this communication finds you in good health.

My name is Maaka Baddbids. I was born in Somalia but moved to Singapore with my Ma and Pa when I was but a youth. I am 91 years old now and have been playing bridge for over 60 years. I most always play three times a week, unless I have to travel to the doctor for one of my many ailments.

So far I have 83 of the black points, 4 silver points, 1.3 red points and almost one full gold point. My only goal in this life is to be a Lifetime Master in bridge, and I am a little short in points.

I am told of your many connections in the bridge world and some of the miracles you have performed in the past.

Please help me with my quest Miss Ella. Many thanks to you in advance.

Your humble servant,

Maaka Baddbids

Fern Shierson ran into Rick Way's wife. If you recall, Rick passed away last April. He contracted covid from her and went very quickly. Our heartfelt condolences to his family.
